

January 2009

Happy New Years!

The New Year is here and it is time for a fresh start. Many households make a point to clear out their old belongings to make room for their new holiday gifts- including new cell phones!

Place collection notices on local bulletin boards, and newsletters. Guide your neighbours, classmates, and work associates to your nearest collection point to properly dispose of their old or used phones.

Good luck collecting!

